

LIVE & LEARN WASHINGTON SEMESTER PROGRAMS

LEARN AT AMERICAN UNIVERSITY

The American University Washington Semester Programs provide you opportunities to live and learn in Washington, D.C. Attend an engaging academic seminar, led by full-time university faculty, and interact with experts in your field. You also have the option to complete a semester-long research project on a topic of your choice.

We currently offer ten program tracks:

- American Politics
- Foreign Policy
- Global Economics & Business
- International Environment & Development
- International Law & Organizations
- Islam & World Affairs
- Journalism & New Media
- Justice & Law
- Peace & Conflict Resolution
- Transforming Communities & Public Policy

INTERN IN D.C.

Your internship will open the door to opportunities and provide real-world experience to separate you from the crowd. Past students worked for a variety of embassies, not-for-profit organizations, think tanks, government departments, and multinational corporations.

Past internship organizations include:

- American Bar Association
- Bank of America
- CNN
- Department of Justice
- International Human Rights Law Group
- Roots of Development
- UBS Financial Services
- Voice of America

LIVE IN WASHINGTON

Washington, D.C., with its history, culture, and cuisine, is as much a part of the Washington Semester experience as internships and coursework. Boasting dozens of museums (including 19 famed Smithsonian), presidential memorials, and world-class eateries, the District is always buzzing with political and social energy.

Chartered by an Act of Congress in 1893, American University, or AU, enrolls over 13,000 students a year and offers all the amenities of a major, modern university. Washington Semester students access the university library, media centers, speakers, forums, movie screenings, performances, computer labs, and fitness center.

JOIN US AT AMERICAN UNIVERSITY IN WASHINGTON, D.C. DURING A PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION YEAR

WSP.AMERICAN.EDU
EMAIL WASHSEM@AMERICAN.EDU

Twitter.com/WashSem
Facebook.com/WashingtonSemesterProgram
Phone: 202-895-4900
Fax: 202-895-4960

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY
WASHINGTON, D.C.