

IN MEMORIAM – 2010

Dr. Esther Broome, a TWU alumna and long time faculty member in textiles and clothing, passed away in September at age 98 in Longview where she moved about 18 months before her death. Dr. Broome endowed the Johnnie Lee Feemster scholarship that is administered through the Former Students Association and benefits a graduate student in English. She enjoyed meeting the student that received her scholarship and Dr. Phyllis Bridges, faculty member in English and long time friend of Dr. Broome's facilitated that meeting. Her obituary appeared in the Denton Record Chronicle on September 28.

TWU Emeritus Professor of Music, Donald Michel, former director of TWU's Music Therapy program passed away on December 19, 2010. A memorial service was held at St. David of Wales Episcopal Church on Saturday, January 15, 2011 at 4:00 PM, in Denton. Dr. Michel and his wife, Mary Jeane, asked that memorials be made to the Donald and Mary Jeane Michel Endowed Scholarship (providing assistance to graduate students enrolled in TWU's Music Therapy program which is administered by the Office of Institutional Development at TWU). The full obituary appeared in the Denton Record Chronicle on January 10.
