

TWU Entrepreneurs

Tommye Pitts Baker, ASID, RID – B. S, Interior Design, 1961; M.A, Interior Design, 1985 –

Tommye Pitts Baker holds a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Arts Degree with an additional concentrations in marketing, merchandising, retailing, and textiles. Owner of Tommye Pitts Interiors, Inc., and the manufacturing division (d.b.a.), the Maroon Moon, specializing in the design and manufacturing of exclusive decorative accessories, table top and bedding for large catalogue accounts such as Neiman Marcus, Horchow, Gumps, etc. and large store accounts, Mrs. Baker has enjoyed a successful business career since 1961 upon her graduation from Texas Woman's University. She is also an expert witness to attorneys for any damage to textiles and fabrics. As an avocation, she has chosen photography as an additional business venture in the name of "The MeowBowWow Gallery" that can be found on You Tube and Facebook. The venture entails the photographing of dogs and cats as well as other animals.

Nancy Brittan Welborne , B. S. Journalism, 1958 – Nancy Welborne is owner of Marketing Associates, her company of 27 years. She specializes in business consulting, business plans, career consulting, and resumes. Some of her major clients have been Frito-Lay, JCPenny as well as other construction, retail and professional service companies. Her work has been recognized in two national publications for leadership and innovation.

Lumbie Miambo – B. S. Computer Science, 2001, Editor-In-Chief/Publisher, Equanimity Magazine. Equanimity is a national, lifestyle magazine that is now distributed at Barnes and Noble bookstores all over the U.S. View the latest edition at www.equanimitymag.com or see the video show on NBC 5 DFW <http://www.nbcdfw.com/news/local-beat/Taking-a-Risk-to-Inspire-All--79778517.html>