

Internship at the Dallas Arboretum

This 66-acre display garden is on the shores of White Rock Lake in Dallas, Texas. It is considered one of the major display gardens in the Southwest, nationally known for its outstanding floral festivals and recognized for its Texas Pioneer Adventure exhibit area.

Summer Internship

Made possible through the ExxonMobil Community Summer Jobs Program

Duration: 8 weeks

Compensation: 35 hours per week at $10/hour

Our intern will work with staff to develop children and family programming.

The interns will work in our children's summer camps and participate in weekly meetings, field trips and presentations by experts from local not-for-profits. Experience working with children is a plus. Desire to work with children in nature is a must.

Join a great team and earn while you learn in the most beautiful place in Texas!

Eligible students are those who have completed at least one year of college and who will be returning to college in Fall 2010. Students enrolled in education or a related field, or who have experience working with children preferred. To apply, submit a cover letter and resume by e-mail:
