

HealthSouth Plano Rehabilitation Hospital Therapists Are One of Our Greatest Assets

You want to make a difference in people's lives. After all, that is why you became a therapist. Your patients' needs drive you to do the best job that you can—and it is important that the company you work with feels the same way.

At HealthSouth, we focus on wellness and positive outcomes. Many patients come to us with catastrophic illnesses or injuries that can negatively affect their function and quality of life, such as stroke, brain injury, amputation and joint replacement. Rehabilitation is a specialty that allows you to make a positive impact on a patient's life.

Rehabilitation at HealthSouth combines your skills with direct patient/family contact. This takes place in pristine, state-of-the-art facilities to create a positive and rewarding work experience. As one of the nation's largest providers of rehabilitation, we know our therapy professionals are critical to our success. That's why at HealthSouth, we offer our therapists:
