

Traditional Library Values in E-Learning Environment

Sarah Alexander

Academic Advisor

School of Library and Information Studies

Texas Woman's University

<http://www.twu.edu/slis/>

ALA Core Values of Librarianship

- Access
- Confidentiality/Privacy
- Democracy
- Diversity
- Education and Lifelong Learning
- Intellectual Freedom
- Preservation
- The Public Good
- Professionalism
- Service
- Social Responsibility

Graduate Study is

- Self-exploration
- A stage in your life long learning

NWU

What We Want in Our Graduates

- Knowledge
 - Competencies, skills
- Vision
 - Problem solving, strategy development
- Passion
 - Service, change agent

E-Learning at TWU

- Course contents
- Faculty mentoring and advising
- Learning and support from peers
- Practicum

E-Learning Environment

- Lectures and presentations
- Readings
- Independent research
- Asynchronous discussion
- Online chat

Infrastructure for Successful E-Learning

- Technology
- Scholarship/financial aids
- Community support: libraries, schools
other LIS ed. programs
- Family support

Important Links

SLIS Website:

<http://www.twu.edu/slis/>

SLIS Admissions:

<http://www.twu.edu/slis/admissions.asp>

Financial Aid:

<http://www.twu.edu/finaid/>

Bursar's Office:

<http://www.twu.edu/bursar/default.asp>

Thank you. Questions please?