

COUNSELING AND DEVELOPMENT FACULTY POSITION

POSITION: Assistant/Associate Professor of Counselor Education (with School Counseling specialization) – Tenure Track, Department of Family Sciences, College of Professional Education, Texas Woman's University, Denton, Texas

RESPONSIBILITIES: Teaching a variety of counseling courses, supervising clinical experiences, and advising students in a Master's level CACREP accredited community and school counseling program. The successful applicant will be expected to conduct research and publish in journals related to the discipline; collaborate with colleagues; and perform community service to the university, profession, and the community.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS FOR ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: (a) Ph.D. or Ed.D. in Counselor Education from a CACREP (The Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs) accredited university and eligible for licensure in the State of Texas (including LPC, NCC and school counseling certification); (b) Professional School Counseling experience; (c) Potential for excellence in graduate instruction, evidence of successful teaching experience, and demonstrated clinical competence; (d) Strong potential for research and scholarship appropriate to the rank; (e) Documented professional counselor identity; (f) Documented professional experience with and/or competency when working with culturally diverse populations; and (g) Willingness to engage in community/school-university partnerships.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS FOR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: (a) Ph.D. or Ed.D. in Counselor Education from a CACREP (The Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs) accredited and eligible for licensure in the State of Texas (including LPC, NCC and school counseling certification); (b) Professional School Counseling experience; (c) Evidence of successful teaching experience in graduate instruction and demonstrated clinical competence; (d) An established scholarly agenda appropriate to the rank; (e) Documented professional counselor identity; (f) Documented professional experience with and/or competency when working with culturally diverse populations; and (g) Willingness to engage in community/school-university partnerships.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: (a) Bilingual in Spanish and English; (b) Evidence of student-oriented instruction and leading within a collaborative environment; (c) Demonstrated outreach and service activities appropriate to the rank; (d) Interest in or experience with collaborative grant development; and (e) Interest in or expertise with on-line/distance learning and other alternative delivery systems.

GENERAL INFORMATION: The Department of Family Sciences is one of four departments in the College of Education. Currently, there are 23.5 FTE faculty who teach in four program areas: Early Childhood Development Education, Counseling and Development, Family Studies, and Family Therapy. One auxiliary service/training component of the Department is the Counseling and Family Development Clinic, which serves individuals, groups and families from the community. The Counseling and Development program is a master's level program with 141 majors.

The College of Professional Education is the home for three departments and one school: Family Sciences, Reading, Teacher Education, and the School of Library and Information Studies. Texas Woman's University (TWU) is a Doctoral/Research Intensive public university. TWU has three campuses. The main campus is located on 270 acres in Denton. Denton has a population of 100,100 and is 35 miles north of the Dallas-Ft. Worth metro-plex. The other campuses are the TWU Health Sciences Centers in Houston and Dallas. They offer upper-level and graduate studies in nursing and allied health professions.

RANK AND SALARY: Assistant/Associate Professor, 9-month tenure track, assigned to the Denton campus. Salary is competitive with experiences.

BEGINNING DATE: Preferred September 2010 (Fall Semester)

APPLICATION: The Search Committee will begin reviewing applications immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Complete applications must include a cover letter, current curriculum vita, and copies of official transcripts. The names, address, and telephone numbers of three references may be requested later. Application should be sent to:

Counseling & Development
Search Committee Chair
Department of Family Sciences
Texas Woman's University
Denton, TX 76204-5769

Texas Woman's University is an affirmative action, equal employment opportunity employer. Women, minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.