

Summer II (June 4 – July 6, 2012)

AGE OF INDUSTRIALIZATION

Hist./Gov. 5753.01 and Hist./Gov. 4903.01

This course deals with the historical, cultural, and legal context of the transformation of the United States to an urbanized, industrial power between 1870 and 1920. Specific topics include the impact of the railroads, the rise of the “Robber Barons,” and the struggles between organized labor and management.

This is a travel course which requires a trip to Chicago from June 24 – June 28. Travel destinations include Hull House, Pullman, and the remnants of the 1893 Chicago World’s Fair! Contact Dr. Robb (JRobb@twu.edu) or Dr. Travis (PTravis@twu.edu) for course and trip information.
