ETA-NU WINS FIRST PHI ALPHA THETA FACEBOOK CONTEST!

In a recent contest, hundreds of proud Phi Alpha Thetans signed onto the organization's new Facebook page as representatives of their local chapters. The Eta-Nu Chapter at Texas Woman's University had the highest number of members participating in the contest and, as a result, the chapter will receive a new website. In addition to being devoted fans of the Phi Alpha Theta Facebook page, members of Eta Nu are actively involved in many chapter activities. The chapter sponsors a very popular lunchtime lecture series, movie nights, and field trips to historic sites. Eta-Nu also publishes an annual peer-reviewed journal, Ibid: A Student Journal of History, which features student research.

The chapter regularly sends large groups to regional Phi Alpha Theta conferences and to the Biennial National Convention. Recently celebrating its 50th anniversary, the chapter initiates more than 60 members a year. Chapter advisor and Executive Council member Jake Blosser describes his members as having "an energetic and contagious enthusiasm for the past." Congratulations to the Eta-

Nu Chapter and to all Phi Alpha Thetans who participated in the recent contest.
