The theme "Beginning a Decade of Service" was set forth with great emphasis on libraries. Club members were urged to compile club histories of their libraries and renew their dedication to them. A special cash award was given for the best overall library report in 1992. The TFWC Texas Woman's Library was given a boost with Mrs. Boutwell's contribution of the monetary gifts she received from clubwomen and clubs. TFWC members were also asked to support the TFWC library. The GFWC Centennial, celebrated in New York in April of 1990, was also enjoyed TFWC assembled in general convention via electronic media. A second edition of the TFWC handbook was published and 501 c3 status for the TFWC was finalized.
