

Fleming Administration, 1915-1917

Mrs. Fred Fleming, Dallas

Education	Baylor College
Family	Husband, and three daughters
Home Club	Matheon Club, Dallas
Special Awards & Achievements	Celebrated Federation's 20 th birthday during her administration
Other Organizational Memberships	Woman's Peace Party, Daughters of the American Revolution, State Garden Clubs

The motto of Mrs. Fleming's administration began as "A Stronger Interest Between Urban and Rural Communities," but was quickly changed after the start of World War I. As the war began Mrs. Fleming's motto was changed to "War for Democracy" and the Federation resolved to correlate all of its work with that of the Red Cross and the War Work Council.