The theme of Mrs. Griffiths' administration was "Applied Knowledge is Power." One of Mrs. Griffiths' special projects was repair and maintenance of the Federation Headquarters. She spearheaded a fundraiser in which women from across the state saved product labels for redemption in the Federation Endowment Fund. Mrs. Griffiths is also known for encouraging women to attend GFWC conventions. She rented a bus so that 45 women could all make the trip to the convention together. Mrs. Griffiths promoted cooperation between all districts within the TFWC.
