'ACCOMPLICE' IS TWU DINNER THEATRE PRODUCTION

Mystery and mayhem are on the menu as the Texas Woman's University Drama Department presents a dinner theatre production of Rupert Holmes' "Accomplice" April 15-17.

Performances are at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, April 15 and 16, and at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 17 at Metropolitan Catering, 932 W. University in Denton. General admission is $25, which includes dinner and the performance. Student specials are available at $15 for dinner and the performance, or $5 for the performance only. Beer and wine will be available at no additional cost. Reservations are required and may be made by calling 8-1-2020.

Murder, infidelity and downright deception at each turn present an evening of plot twists that challenges the audience to solve an ever-changing puzzle. Even the cast and crew have been sworn to secrecy regarding the play's conspiratorial plot.

NEWSBRIEFS

Information and news about activities, programs or TWU people may be sent to the Office of Marketing and Communication through campus mail or by e-mail to info@twu.edu. The deadline to receive information is the first and third Tuesday of each month at 5 p.m. for the following week. Student information for the "People" section is not published unless it is submitted by or in conjunction with a faculty member and that faculty member's related activities.

The audience will have an opportunity to learn the art of folk dancing as TWU's Department of Dance presents its 27th annual Spring Folk Dance Festival on Wednesday, April 6. The festival will be held from 5 to 6 p.m. at the Bernice Abreo Fischer Amphitheater. In the event of rain, performances will take place in room 208 of the DGL Building. Admission is free. For more information, call 8-1-2085.

UPDATE ON TWU PEOPLE

Please submit "People" items (faculty and staff only) to the Office of Marketing and Communication by campus mail or by e-mail to info@twu.edu. Include first and last names (no initials, please) and appropriate titles (ie. Dr.).

Dr. Frances Thompson (mathematics & computer science) will receive the 2005 Grover C. Morlan Medal from Abilene Christian University on April 8 in Abilene. The medal is presented to outstanding ACU alumni who have distinguished themselves in careers in education.

Heidi Miller (financial aid advisor-Houston Center) presented five financial aid seminars on March 12th for the Houston Area Urban League's 1st Annual University Headquarters Program. The event was designed to enlighten, educate, and equip Houston area students with access to all available information needed to make sound decisions about higher education options.

Dr. Dene Grigar (English) will give the first performance of her digital literary work, "When Ghosts Will Die," a piece that uses multi-sensory elements such as sound, images, light, and poetry created by motion-tracking technology and computers to tell a story about nuclear proliferation. The work is the result of the postdoctoral study she undertook in new media and interactive arts with the Planetary Collegium from the University of Plymouth during 2002-4. The work is part of a media arts show she is hosting in honor of the Planetary Collegium who will be in Dallas for its spring research session from April 3-13. The performance and media arts show will be held at Project X Theatre, 1409 S. Lamar, Dallas, from 7-11 p.m. Saturday, April 9. Tickets to the media arts show are $10. For more information, contact Dr. Grigar at 8-1-2298 or go to <http://www.nospace.net/dene/media-arts-event.html>.
