NEWSBRIEFS

Information and news about activities, programs or TWU people may be sent to the Office of Marketing and Communication through campus mail or by e-mail to info@twu.edu. The deadline to receive information is the first and third Tuesday of each month at 5 p.m. for the following week. Student information for the "People" section is not published unless it is submitted by or in conjunction with a faculty member and that faculty member's related activities.

The Texas Woman's University College of Nursing will showcase clinical research projects conducted by TWU's inaugural doctor of nursing practice (DNP) class during its first Capstone Symposium Friday, April 30. The symposium will take place from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the auditorium of TWU's Parkland campus. The event is free and open to the public. All 15 of TWU's 2010 DNP candidates — who make up the university's first ever DNP graduating class — will speak about their research and showcase their projects during poster presentations. For more information, call (214) 689-6597, email garcia2@twu.edu or visit www.twu.edu/nursing.

The STARS student alumni relations council received the Best Internal Program Award at the ASAP (Affiliated Student Advancement Programs) conference held March 12-14 in El Paso. The Best Internal Program recognizes work that is done to create or improve programs and activities within the organization. Programs receiving the ASAP awards are considered models for others. The TWU STARS, organized during the fall 2009 semester, submitted their organizational process and constitution for judging. STARS is affiliated with the TWU Office of Alumni Relations.

UPDATE ON TWU PEOPLE

Please submit "People" items (faculty and staff only) to the Office of Marketing and Communication by campus mail or by e-mail to info@twu.edu. Include first and last names (no initials, please) and appropriate titles (ie. Dr.)

Dr. Jake Blosser (history & government) represented the president of Phi Alpha Theta, the history honor society, at the opening of the society's newest chapter at Dallas Baptist University on March 29. As a member of the National Executive Council of Phi Alpha Theta, Dr. Blosser presented the new chapter with its official charter and gave an address welcoming them into the society.

Dr. Faisal Aboul-Enein (nursing, Houston) has published and co-authored "Forgotten lessons from the Palestine Conflict during World War II" in the spring 2010 Arabic language edition of Air and Space Power Journal, the professional journal of the U.S. Air Force and the leading forum for worldwide air, space and cyberspace power thought.

Dr. AnaLouise Keating (women's studies) was the keynote speaker at the international, interdisciplinary graduate conference "Anything But Silence: Politics, Poetry, and Pedagogy," March 25-27 at the University of South Florida. Her presentation was titled "Voicing Transformation: From Status-Quo Stories to 'Cosmic Connections.'"

Dr. Ellina Grigorieva (mathematics & computer science) had a manuscript accepted for publication by the Electronic Journal of Differential Equations. The manuscript, titled "Optimal Control Of A Waste Water Cleaning Plant," will be published in May.
