Faculty Awards

Robert Foster Cherry Award for Great Teaching

This award was established by Robert Foster Cherry to honor “outstanding professors in the English-speaking world who are distinguished for their ability to communicate as classroom teachers.” Given biannually since 1991, the winner will teach in residence at Baylor University, Waco, Texas, during the fall and spring semesters the year after selection. The winner and the academic department from the school represented also receive monetary awards.

2007    Glen Jennings, Ed.D., Professor of Family Sciences, TWU Nominee for the Robert Foster Cherry Award.
