

CURRICULUM VITAE
Linda Csiza, PT, DSc, NCS
February, 2009

Education

DSc	2002-2005	Neurology	Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions, Provo, Utah
M.S.	2001-2002	PT	Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions, Provo, Utah
B.S.	1987-1989	PT	Texas Woman's University Dallas, Texas

Dissertation

The effect of Taoist meditation on stress, fatigue, and depression in persons with Multiple Sclerosis; a single subject design.

Professional Certification/Licensure

Licensed Physical Therapist: Texas and Colorado
Neurologic Clinical Specialist since 2001

Employment

January 2007 to present	Texas Woman's University Dallas, Texas Assistant Clinical Professor
January 2007 to present	Riata Therapy Specialists Senior Physical Therapist Clinical Specialist Bedford, Texas
Fall 2003 to December 2006	University of Colorado at Denver and Health Sciences Center, Denver, CO Senior Instructor
August 1998-May 2004	South Valley Physical Therapy, PC Englewood, Colorado Physical Therapist
December 1995-August 1998	Cherry Hills Healthcare PT Director Englewood, CO
September 1995-December 1995	Spalding Rehab in Subacute Unit Senior Physical Therapist Englewood, CO
September 1992-August 1995	The Well Mill, PC Pediatric PT Coordinator Fort Worth, TX
September 1991-August 1992	Arlington Memorial Hospital Senior Physical Therapist Arlington, TX
September 1990-August 1991	Mid Cities Back and Neck Clinic Senior Physical Therapist Eules, TX

September 1989-August 1990

Parkland Memorial Hospital
Physical Therapist
Dallas, TX

Scholarship/Creative Achievements

Non-refereed Publications or Other Creative Achievements

Videos

1990: Educational video on the Physical Therapist in the ICU

1992: Educational video on exercise and asthma

Professional Case Development

2004: Author for Patient Care Seminar Cases various topics

2005: Co-author for Standardized Patient Case; COPD

2006: Co-author for Standardized Patient Case; CVA

Other

Presentations at Professional Meetings

2005: The Evidenced based management of dizziness in individuals with Multiple Sclerosis, National PT Conference, CSM, New Orleans, LA

2005: The Evidenced based management of fatigue in individuals with Multiple Sclerosis, National PT Conference, CSM, New Orleans, LA

2005: The effect of Taoist meditation on stress, depression, and fatigue in persons with Multiple Sclerosis: a single subject design; December 2005: UCH

2006: Neuroplasticity: What do we know now? Colorado APTA Spring Conference

2009: Texas Faculty Summit: How do we teach PT diagnosis in our entry level curriculum

Professional Service

Service Activities for the Component, College, University

Secretary for Physical Therapy Faculty Meetings, September 2007 to present

Member of the Professional Admissions Committee: August 2007 to present

Member of Professional Search committee: October 2007 to present

Member of the Professional Curriculum committee: September 2008 ongoing

Member of the Alumni Committee: September 2008 ongoing

Faculty Evaluation and Development Committee 2008-2009

UCDHSC School of Medicine, Physical Therapy

Education Committee: Chair: 2004-2006

Service to the Profession

2005-present: Secretary of the Balance and Falls SIG

2006-2007: Delegate at large for Colorado APTA

2005-2006: Co-chair of Research Committee of Colorado APTA

2005-2006: Committee member; Bob Doctor annual Golf and Fund Raiser

2006: Reviewer for the Journal of Neurologic Physical Therapy

2007- present: Committee Member of the Finance Committee for the Neurology Section of the APTA

2008-present: Member of the Clinical Residency and Fellowship Subcommittee/APTA

2009-present: Member of SACE for Neurologic content

2009-2014: Member on Clinical Residency and Fellowship Program Credentialing

Membership in professional societies

American Physical Therapy Association

Sections: Neurology, Pediatric, Wound/electrophysiology, Education
Regular attendee to APTA; CSM