Have you ever thought about the varying effects of domestic violence on different cultures and ethnicities? Do you want answers to your questions about dating violence and your community?

As the first of Project REV's multicultural series of events focusing on gendered violence in different ethnic communities, this event will feature prominent experts from TWU and the Denton community leading a discussion to explore the role of domestic violence in the African-American community.

Come with your own questions and comments to share!
