

VA Reimbursement Checklist for Licensing, Certifications, and National Test

- Search the VA for approved test at: http://www.gibill.va.gov/GI_Bill_Info/search_programs.htm
- Review VA policy on test reimbursement at: <http://www.gibill.va.gov/pamphlets/testing.htm>
- Register and take the necessary exam, license, or certification
- File your Reimbursement claim by submitting the following items to the VA for reimbursement
 - 1) Submit the VA Form...
 - VA Form 22-0803- Application for reimbursement for Licensing or Certification fees
 - OR VA Form 22-0810- Application for reimbursement for National Test Fees
 - 2) Test results
 - 3) Test fees & Receipt

TWU policy:

Students entering Texas Woman's University may be able to gain University credit for examinations. There are several types of examinations that may earn college credit with a minimum score requirement. They include:

Examples of approved examinations:

Advanced Placement Program (AP)	Departmental examination and/or reviews *
International Baccalaureate Program (IB)	Professional society tests in specific disciplines *
College-Level Examination Program (CLEP)

Examples of approved license, certifications, and national test include:

License	Certifications:	National Tests:
Attorney's license	C++ Certification	SAT ACT
Cosmetology license	Certified Safety Professional	GRE LAST

Example of fees covered by the VA:

Registration fees
Fees for specialized tests
Administrative fees

Examples of fees not covered by the VA:

Fees to take pre-tests (such as Kaplan tests)
Fees to receive scores quickly
Fees for optional items that are not required to take an approved test

*Academic Departments will determine if credit is to be awarded for these exams. A student may not receive credit by examination for a TWU course in which she or he has enrolled. No more than 30 hours can be received as credit by examination. Official score reports should be sent to the Office of Student Records Processing. See the Admissions website for the most recent information on credit by examination at: <https://www.twu.edu/admissions/credit-by-exam.asp>