

Texas Woman's University
First-Year Student Orientation Booklet

Congratulations!

Congratulations on selecting Texas Woman's University for your college experience! We are excited for you to join us as the newest member of our TWU family.

We know you are eager to arrive, and we cannot wait to have you here on campus. In order to assist you with your transition to TWU, all first-year students are required to attend an Orientation session. Orientation is an opportunity to meet new classmates, learn about campus resources, and understand our University's spirit and traditions!

Welcome from the Vice President for Student Life

Congratulations on your admission to Texas Woman's University! Welcome to the Pioneer family! Your acceptance to TWU is an opportunity to a new education and future. We have chosen you to join our engaging and diverse student body.

To help make your transition to TWU as smooth as possible, TWU has an Orientation program planned just for you! The dates for our First-Year Orientations are: June 14-15, June 23-24, June 28-29, June 30, July 29-30, and August 2-3. Because we consider First-Year Orientation vital to student success, we have chosen to require the attendance of students who are transferring less than 12 hours (excluding dual credit) to TWU. Orientation offers you a great opportunity to meet with faculty and staff and to register for your fall classes. Registration for First-Year Student Orientation can be found on the following website: www.twu.edu/orientation.

Parents and families play an important role in promoting the personal development and academic success of their student during the college years. For this reason, TWU has designed a Parent and Family Orientation that takes place at the same time as your Orientation. Therefore, when you register for Orientation, please include your guests on your registration form.

Please be aware that the State of Texas mandates that new students demonstrate college-readiness in the subject areas of reading, writing, and mathematics via the TSI Assessment prior to enrolling in college-level coursework. Course placement will be based on the results of the TSI assessment. Some students may be exempt from the TSI Assessment, and you may visit the website www.twu.edu/aac/accuplacer-test-dates.asp to learn more about these exemptions. You can access your current TSI status by logging into the Pioneer Portal portal.twu.edu/default.asp. The TSI assessment will be administered the day prior to Orientation, and you will be contacted by the Office of Undergraduate Studies and Academic Partnerships via TWU e-mail regarding testing requirements.

Another step in becoming a Pioneer is to attend and participate in Pioneer Camp. This begins the week prior to classes (August 25-28, 2016) with all new students participating in a fun and informative introduction to opportunities here at TWU. This is a great time to establish new friendships, learn about campus life, and become familiar with TWU and its traditions. You will receive more information about Pioneer Camp at Orientation this summer.

I am pleased you have selected TWU. The Student Life staff and I look forward to meeting and engaging with you. Please feel free to contact the Center for Student Development at 940-898-3626 or email them at orientation@twu.edu if you have questions or need assistance.

Sincerely,

Dr. Monica Mendez-Grant
Vice President for Student Life

University Housing & Residence Life

Living on campus is a great way to connect with TWU. Students who live on campus tend to be more satisfied with their time at college, get better grades, and develop relationships with faculty and staff. Life in the residence halls is exciting, fun, and a way to develop into the person you wish to be. You will meet lots of new people – some like you and many that come from different backgrounds. All of these residents have a common goal – to be a successful Pioneer!

Applying for Housing

Apply for housing via the University Housing & Residence Life website at www.twu.edu/housing. A $150 application fee and deposit are required. Preferences are awarded based on date and time your application is received, so the sooner you apply the better your chances are of getting the assignment you want. We recommend applying by March 1, 2016.

Residency Requirement

All TWU full-time single undergraduates who have not completed 60 hours are required to live on campus unless they meet one of the following criteria:

- 21 years of age or older (by August 15, 2016)
- Active duty military or veterans of military service
- Living with parents or legal guardians within 40 miles of TWU
- Have children
- Completed 48 hours and have a cumulative 3.0 GPA

If you are under the residency requirement and wish to commute, you must have one of the following forms approved and on file with University Housing & Residence Life. These forms can be found on the University Housing & Residence Life website.

- Certification of living with parents or legal guardians
- Request for release from the residency requirement

Roommate Request

We welcome and encourage mutual roommate requests. Requests must be mutual and must be made on the housing application. Roommate requests must be made early in the process. We cannot guarantee roommate requests made after April 1, 2016. Priority for roommate pairs is based on whether you and your roommate preference apply within 10 days of each other.

Living Learning Communities

Living Learning Communities (LLC) provide student learning opportunities outside of the classroom that strengthen student intellectual and personal growth. They are designed to integrate curricular and co-curricular experiences that complement and extend classroom learning. The various communities have been developed around an academic or special interest theme and are structured so that students have a high degree of involvement in the program. If you would like to apply to live in a LLC, please complete the Learning Community portion of the online housing application.

TSI Assessment

Purpose and Importance

According to the Texas Education Code for the Texas Success Initiative (TSI), new students, unless exempt, must be tested to assess their readiness for First-Year level work in reading, writing, and mathematics prior to enrolling in college-level coursework. The TSI Assessment will determine which classes you will be required to take during your first and subsequent semesters at TWU. Your scores will determine if you will be advised into mandatory developmental courses before beginning college-level courses in reading, writing, and math. It is very important that you take your time and do your best in order to be placed accurately.

Know Your TSI Status

Students can find their current TSI status by logging into the Pioneer Portal and clicking the link titled "Your Texas Success Initiative (TSI) Status" under the heading "Other Resources" on the start page.

Exemptions and College Ready Scores

For a period of five (5) years from the date of testing, a student who performs at or above the minimum required scores (per subject area) on one of the following assessments will not require TSI testing:

Final Transcripts

Texas Woman's University requires an official transcript from every institution attended. Transcripts may be electronic or printed. Final transcripts, including dual credit if applicable, must be sent to the Office of Admissions Processing.

- Electronic transcripts must be sent through a secured, third-party service directly to TWU from the sending institution to OAP@twu.edu. Texas Woman's University cannot accept an electronic transcript from an applicant.
- Printed transcripts must be sent directly from the institution to TWU or delivered in a sealed envelope from the institution. Unopened transcripts may be forwarded by mail to TWU by the applicant in the original sealed envelope.

Immunization Requirement

Effective January 1, 2012, Texas law requires that all new and transfer college students must receive a vaccination or booster against bacterial meningitis. Students 22 years of age or older are not required to file the exemption or show proof of vaccination.

Students required to have the vaccination or booster will not be able to register for classes until a valid immunization record or a notarized Department of State Health Services (DSHS) official Conscientious Objection Form has been provided to the Office of the Registrar or the Office of Admissions Processing.
