

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

TEXAS WOMAN'S UNIVERSITY

Hallmark Alumni Award Nomination Packet

The Texas Woman's University Alumni Association bestows the Hallmark Award at the Accolades Awards Luncheon during Homecoming. This packet is required for any person nominated for the Hallmark Award.

Hallmark Alumni Award

The Hallmark Alumni Award is presented to TWU graduates who through their education and personal conduct have made a significant positive impact on their profession or community. They have demonstrated initiative, implemented a bright idea or accepted a major challenge and achieved significant results. As rising young stars exemplifying a "can do" spirit, they have brought honor to themselves and Texas Woman's University through their accomplishments and service to others.

The selection criteria for this award include:

- At least one degree from Texas Woman's University.
- Professional experience.
- Service to their profession and community.
- Leadership roles.
- Support of the University since graduation through involvement with their Department, students and/or the TWU Alumni Association.

Please Note

Persons who are employed by TWU, members of the TWU Alumni Association Board of Directors, members of the TWU Board of Regents, members of the state legislature and others directly related to the regulation of higher education in the State of Texas are not eligible. These individuals are eligible five years after completing their service.
