

University Counsel (Legal) vs. Compliance

different but aligned

Destinee Waiters, General Counsel and
Associate Vice President of Compliance

The two functions have very different mindsets, mandates and priorities

University Counsel (Legal):

- advise and protect the University from legal problems
- defend the actions of the University

Office of Compliance:

- detecting and preventing misconduct.
- constant vigilance on the integrity of the compliance program, protecting internal and supporting a culture of accountability, especially at levels of management.
