

Contributors

Esmeralda Aguilar (A Child with No Childhood) is an undergraduate student at North Central Texas College. Ms. Aguilar's essay was awarded second place in the 2015 Living History Essay Contest.

Ruby Aguilar (My First Trip Away from my Mom) is an undergraduate student at North Central Texas College. Ms. Aguilar's essay was awarded first place in the 2015 Living History Essay Contest.

Patrick Alessandra (Trend in Historiography: The Causes of WWI) is an undergraduate History major at Texas Woman's University. Mr. Alessandra is a member of the Eta Nu Chapter, Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society.

Alicia Berdan (True Detective: The Case for Neo-noir) is a M.A. candidate in Art History at Texas Woman's University.

Paul J. Burrow (Trends in Historiography: The Treachery of Charles Lee) is an undergraduate History major at Texas Woman's University.

Abbie Carrier (Trends in Historiography: The Decision to Drop the Bomb) is an undergraduate History major at Texas Woman's University. Ms. Carrier is a member of the Eta Nu Chapter, Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society.

Jillion Crawford-Becker (Licking Polio: The Role of the Mass Public in Developing the Vaccine that Would Change the World) is a M.A. candidate in History at Texas Woman's University. Ms. Crawford-Becker is a member of the Eta Nu Chapter, Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society.

Danielle Hammond, (The Day the World Mourned) is an undergraduate student at Tarrant County Community College. Ms. Hammond's essay was awarded third place in the 2015 Living History Essay Contest.

Katerina Kvapilova (Trends in Historiography: Herbert Hoover A Fallen Hero?) is an undergraduate History major at Texas Woman's University.

Megan Martin (The Effectiveness of the War Refugee Board in Holocaust Relief) is an undergraduate History major at Texas Woman's University. Ms. Martin is a member of the Eta Nu Chapter, History Honor Society.

Devin C. Parhms (Trends in Historiography: Nat Turner and his Rebellion) is an undergraduate History major at Texas Woman's University

Karen Perkins (The Contributions of Samuel Adams to the American Revolution: A Historiographic Analysis) is a M.A. candidate in History at Texas Woman's University.

Amanda Romero (The MFAA in World War II) is an undergraduate History major at Texas Woman's University.

Leah Stanton (Windsor Castle: The Evolution of an English Fortress and its 21st Century Cultural Significance) is a M.A. candidate in History at Texas Woman's University. Ms. Stanton is a member and the current Secretary of the Eta Nu Chapter, Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society.

Melissa G. Thiel (Trends in Historiography: The Dropping of the Atomic Bomb) is an undergraduate History major at Texas Woman's University. Ms. Thiel is a member of the Eta Nu Chapter, Phi Alpha Theta History Honor Society.

Samantha Thornton (Trends in Historiography: The Cuban Missile Crisis) is an undergraduate History major at Texas Woman's University.