

CURRICULUM VITAE
Rebecca Greenwood

August 20, 2018

Academic Background

- | | | |
|---|----------------------------|-------------|
| ● PhD(c) Physical Therapy | Texas Woman's University | Spring 2018 |
| ● Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) | Baylor University | August 2010 |
| ● Bachelor of Science (BS): Kinesiology | San Diego State University | May 2007 |

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

- Physical Therapist (PT) 2010, current license: Texas
- American Board of PT Specialties: Orthopedic Certified Specialist (OCS) 2013
- Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC) 2007

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Competency Lab Coordinator

08/2018-present

Texas Woman's University

12/2015-09/2016

- Facilitate additional laboratory practice for DPT students in various courses, assist faculty in laboratory sessions and skills assessment of DPT students
- Maintain orderliness of laboratory and equipment, order supplies, equipment, and resources needed for the laboratory

Adjunct faculty

Summer 2018

Texas Woman's University

Courses Taught:

- Primary Care in Physical Therapy PT6002

Adjunct faculty 10 hrs/wk

01/2016-12/2017

Texas Woman's University

- Support Physical Therapy faculty in various teaching and research areas

PRN Physical Therapist

10/2015-12/2015

Brookdale Senior Living Solutions, Humble TX

- Evaluate and treat geriatric population in home health environment

Supervising Physical Therapist

02/2015 – 09/2015

Nova Medical Centers, Humble TX

- Evaluate and treat Occupational Health patients in out patient setting
- Supervisor 2 physical therapy assistant
- Work closely with MD to determine maximal medical improvement, need for additional imaging, and referrals to specialists
- Responsibilities include ordering supplies, complete maintenance logs, ensuring compliance and correct billing
- Perform and oversee all physical performance evaluations as part of pre-employment evaluations

Pediatric Home Health Physical Therapist

08/2014 – 02/2015

Epic Therapy, Katy TX

- Evaluated and treated pediatric patients from birth to 18 years old
- Managed full time caseload including tracking insurance authorizations, evaluations, re-evaluations, and discharge
- Performed standardized testing for pediatric patients

US Army active duty: Chief, Department of Rehabilitation

04/2013 – 08/2014

Raymond W. Bliss Army Health Center Fort Huachuca, AZ

- Managed the Department of Rehabilitation providing comprehensive rehabilitation services through evidence-based evaluation, treatment and case management to a beneficiary population of over 13,000 personnel on a TRADOC and FORSCOM joint service installation.
- Supervised the execution of over 1700 patient encounters per month within the physical therapy, sports medicine, orthopedics cast room, and brace shop sections.
- Supervised and mentored 14 staff members to include 2 physical therapist, 5 physical therapy technicians/assistants, a sports medicine physician, a certified athletic trainer, 2 orthopedic technicians, a occupational therapist and 3 medical support assistants.
- Managed personnel, equipment and supply accounts in excess of $500,000. Provide guidance to providers, unit leaders and Soldiers within the area of Comprehensive Soldier Fitness and Physical Readiness Training.
- Performed prevention and wellness activities, education, screening, and promote positive health behaviors for tenant FORSCOM and TRADOC units.
- Provided guidance, data collection, and supervisory input into department performance improvement (PI) project and Joint Commission Provision of Care initiatives.

US Army Active Duty: Officer in Charge (OIC) Troop Medical Clinic 09/2010 – 04/2013

Martin Army Community Hospital

Fort Benning, GA

- Evaluated and treated active duty patients in direct access setting for permanent party soldiers as well as soldiers attending Airborne, Officer Candidate School, Basic Officer Leadership Course, Maneuver Captain's Career Course, and Warrior Leader's Course.
- Ensured immediate musculoskeletal evaluations, definitive diagnosis, cutting edge rehabilitations, and rapid return to training.
- Supervised 6 physical therapist, 3 physical therapy technicians, and 2 medical support assistant.
- Provided guidance within the areas physical fitness, physical training, injury prevention, and physical rehabilitation for medical and non-medical personnel.
- Additional duties include athletic trainer for installation and Army level athletic teams.

PUBLICATIONS

The United States Army Medical Department Journal

July – September 2012

Pages 72-81

TITLE: Clinical and Electrodiagnostic Abnormalities of the Median Nerve in US Army Dental Assistants at the Onset of Training AUTHORS: Greathouse, David G.; Shaffer, Scott W.; Moore, Rebecca; Foo, Shannon;

Henry, Nathan E.; Moore, Josef; INSTITUTIONS (ALL): 1. U.S. Army-Baylor Univ Doctoral Program in Physical Therapy, San Antonio, TX, USA.

Clinical Electrophysiology and Wound Management Section (APTA)

Spring 2010 Newsletter

Abstract pages 7-8

Platform Presentation #3 (1:30 to 1:45) TITLE: Median and Ulnar Neuropathies in U.S. Army Dental Assistants (68E) at the Onset of Training AUTHORS: Greathouse, David G.; Shaffer, Scott W.; Moore, Rebecca; Foo, Shannon; Henry, Nathan E.; Moore, Josef; INSTITUTIONS (ALL): 1. U.S. Army-Baylor Univ Doctoral Program in Physical Therapy, San Antonio, TX, USA. SPONSOR NAME: David Greathouse

CONTINUING EDUCATION

- McKenzie Part A
- TRX level 1
- Mulligan mobilization with movement
- Current Concepts of Orthopaedic Physical Therapy 3rd Ed, 96 hours Continuing Ed
- DN-1: Dry Needling for Craniofacial, Cervicothoracic, and UE Condition: an Evidence-Based Approach
- COL Kersey Advance Physical therapy Course