Selection Criteria

This student works behind the scenes with relentless dedication to the greater task at hand. Although not an individual whose being or skills are necessarily visible to the public at large, without this student's commitment and focused energies, projects would quite literally not get off the ground with the high quality and delivery experienced. Students will be evaluated using this criteria based within the context of their demonstrated service as well as their contributions to the TWU – Houston community during the 2017-2018 academic year.

Please share with us briefly the qualities of service that have come to your attention with this individual. (The level of detail you can provide assists the Review Committee tremendously in its deliberation.): _____
